

ALL SORTS.

Supt. Laws of the C. & C. is in town.
The Boskowitz Bros left this city last evening.
More rain is looked for by the weather sharps.
Don't forget that great moonlight party at Cook's Grove to-night.
Secretary of State Howell will be back on the 20th from New York.
Ex-Assemblyman Francis left for the eastern part of the State last evening.
The Reno Journal and Gazette have taken Senate bill '81 to the Supreme Court.

It is rumored that new evidence has been discovered against Williams, suspected of the Saurman murder.
Don't forget the Wentworth recital tonight, at the Guild hall of the Episcopal church. Admission, 50 cents.
John G. Fox is now selling all kinds of fishing tackle at greatly reduced rates. If you want to catch fish get good tackle.
The Elmira, N. Y. Telegram says: "Mr. Wentworth is one of the very best renderers of popular selections that ever visited us."
Aube has set the cut rate on claret wine. He is now selling a very good claret at 20 cts a bottle. The old rate was 50 cents a bottle.

Joe Chovynski has at last broken his record and won a fight. The papers are looking for later dispatches before placing any dependence on the rumor.
An Inyo county paper speaking of a wedding about to "come off" mentions that "the nuptials will be a private affair and only consummated in the presence of a few friends." The bride's modesty is probably what prevented the editor of the paper and the typographical force from being present also.

Prof. Wood should stick to jig fiddling and dance music. His idea of Schubert's serenade is to say the least, entirely original. He seems to think that this divine inspiration is a piece of jig music and he throws in a few (dis) grace notes to make it lively. There are some musical compositions that don't need any alterations from the fiddler to make them presentable and this is one of them.

Thurston on the Situation.
Salt Lake, June 6.—Senator John M. Thurston says he thinks that the Democratic National Convention will declare for free silver, but may not be able to nominate a free silver candidate, owing to the two thirds rule. He believes the Republicans will make a declaration substantially the same as that of the National platform of 1892. It binds the party to take care of the National product of silver. Thurston thinks the tariff will be a more important question than silver and favors McKinley as the Republican candidate for the President.

Not Mr. Heney.
Washington, June 6.—A telegram was received today by Chief Hazen of the Secret Service Bureau stating that the man arrested in Arizona in the belief that he was Heney, charged with being implicated in the $80,000 gold steal from the Carson Mint, has satisfied the officers that he is not the man that they wanted and has been released.

Ice Cream Soda.
Steinmetz's soda fountain is doing a rushing and sizzling business. The cream he sells is pure as well as the crushed fruit juices. When you combine the two with the cold and the fizz you think the Heavenly choir is marching down your throat.

Auction! Auction!!

G. R. Bradley.

Pasturage.
John Sweeney is now prepared to take a number of horses and dry cows to pasture at $1 per month.

When Baby was sick,
We gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child,
She cried for Castoria.
Then, she became Miss,
She clung to Castoria.
When she had Children,
She gave them Castoria.

WRONG MAN CAPTURED.

He Was On His Way to Carson City of Course.

On Tuesday last a U. S. Secret Service agent was seen at Wickleysburg chasing a large man who was rushing toward a depot. He grabbed him by the collar and said:
"Hold on."
"Let me go," Heney shouted, "I'm on my way to Carson City."
"But that train is going to Mexico."
"Well, yer see, I'm going by the Mexican route. It's a little longer of course, but I'll get there."
"Well Mr. Heney I guess we'll take the other train going the other way and we'll get there sooner."
"But I want to have Mr. Coffin as a travelling companion. I just got a dispatch from Coffin last night and he said he'd meet me and show me the way."
"I'll show you the way. Better sell that ticket to Mexico at half price and we'll start the other way."
"Alright; any way to get to Carson. Dear old Carson. I haven't had a real happy day since I left the town. No place like Nevada for soil and climate. Eh old fellow."
Mr. Heney was locked up and in the night had to be watched very closely as he was up several times trying to break out and start for Carson.
"You may think I'm in an awful sweat to get home. Nevada is an earthquake country and if the town should happen to be destroyed before I get back, it would be awful rough on me."
It afterwards transpired that the man was just out of an insane asylum and thought he was Heney. He was turned loose.

The Silver Party.

Des Moines, Ia., June 5.—General J. B. Weaver and other leaders of the Silver party of the West were present at the State silver meeting to-day. There was a large attendance, and much enthusiasm was manifested. The conference to day was non-partisan, and it is understood no effort will be made to nominate a ticket.
The silver wing of the Democratic party has a conference scheduled for tomorrow. Most of those here to-day will stay over for it.
A letter from United States Circuit Judge Henry C. Caldwell of Little Rock Ark., was read, in which he says: "So long as we proclaim to the world that our purpose is to adhere to the single gold standard till England agrees to abandon it, free and unlimited coinage at any ratio will never come. Supplications in this direction would be in vain. What is more, England's action is a courageous and aggressive action, not a cowardly supplication. The issue is sharply defined. Those who do not favor free coinage of gold and silver at 16 to 1, making silver a unit of value, as done under the act of 1892, are for the gold standard. There is no middle ground."

Sixteen to One.

Springfield, June 5.—With every train today came large delegations to the Democratic State Convention. More people came than anyone expected, and the streets are thronged with silverites. Blue badges bearing the inscription, "Free Silver—16 to 1," fluttered from the coat lapels of incomers and many delegations carried banners proclaiming their belief in free coinage. The delegations that came in yesterday and last night were up almost with the sun this morning and silver speeches by enthusiastic believers in free coinage could be heard in all the lobbies of all the hotels. Every delegate seemed to be for the free coinage of silver, and if there were any opposed to it they were so quiet as not to be noticeable. There is no doubt that a radical free silver platform will be adopted and the Democratic party of this State be committed to that policy.

Kentucky Republicans.

Louisville, June 5.—At the Republican State Convention, Congressman Evans, who offered a strong resolution for the gold standard, was made Chairman. A resolution was referred to the Committee on Invitation to appoint delegates to the Free Coinage Convention at Memphis, was tabled.
Col. W. O. Bradley was nominated for Governor by acclamation. The platform says: "We are opposed to the free and unlimited coinage of silver, believing that it would involve the country in financial ruin. We believe in the sound currency and in the use of both gold and silver for coinage, provided always that the dollar in one is made precisely as valuable as the dollar in the other."

COFFIN'S BROTHER-IN-LAW.

And How he Found him at the State's Expense.

No use for the Government to call upon Mr. Coffin to go and hunt Heney at Government expense. When Mr. Coffin made his smooth proposition to go and hunt Heney, the detectives remembered the way Coffin once hunted a President of the State University. He was a member of the Board of Regents, and Coffin suggested that the institution was badly in need of a new President.
They wrote all over the country for men, and every day got many letters in reply from men willing to accept the place. In pouring over the letters Coffin stumbled on one from Colorado. "It looks as if this man was a good man," said Coffin. "I like the tone of his letter." After some discussion, it was decided to secure him.
"I hate to vote yes in this matter," continued Coffin in thoughtful tones. "We might make a mistake. I would suggest that one of us go and get a good look at him, before we hire him. I'd like to see him first, and see what his neighbors think of him."
Well this was agreed to, and Coffin packed his grip sack and went and took a good look at the man. About a year after it came out accidentally that the man was Coffin's brother-in-law. He put in a bill of $600 for travelling expenses and got it allowed however, before the Board dropped on his scheme. No wonder the Government didn't want Coffin to travel for it.

Railroad Changes.

It seems to be an assured fact that the S. P. R. R. Co. will soon move the car shops now at Carlin, and the round house and coal sheds at Winnemucca to Battle Mountain. Ground has already been measured off at the latter place for the coal sheds, and rumor says that work will begin on the round house and coal sheds the 10 day of June, and that as soon as the buildings are completed, Battle Mountain will be the end of the division reaching from Wadsworth to Battle Mountain, and from Battle Mountain to Tacoma. This change in railroad matters will be a boon to Battle Mountain as well as the county in general, and means an additional increase to the North end population, as well as an increase in taxable property. We sincerely hope, that for the good of the county, the above news will prove correct, and we have every reason to believe it will be so.—Austin Reveille.

Retrospective Reflections.

A correspondent of the DeLamar Lode contributes the following to that paper: Drink, and the gang drinks with you, sweat off and you go it alone; for the bar room bum, who drinks your rum has a quenchless thirst of his own. Feast, and your friends are many; fast, and they'll cut you dead; they'll not get mad if you treat them bad, so long as their stomachs are fed. Steal if you can get a million, for then you can furnish bail; its the great big thief gets out on leave, while the little one goes to jail.
